Continuing Dental Education Programme

On

Statistical Analysis and Design of Medical Studies

24th November, 2016, Time: 9:00 am onwards

Venue: Lecture Hall-3, 2nd floor, School of Dental Sciences
Sharda University, Greater Noida

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Well conducted research is vital to the success of global health endeavours. Research methodology plays vital role in all disciplines of healthcare.

The key objective of this one day CDE Programme is to provide hands on experience to the participants related to research methods so that they can design and methodically explain their own research projects/proposals.

At the end of the course participants will be able:

- To formulate research problems
- To choose appropriate analysis model
- To apply different sampling design
- To publish papers in international journals

PROGRAMME SCHEDULE

9:30 AM - Inauguration
10:00 AM - Lecture on overview & clinical implication of biostatistics
10:30 AM - Types of Data & methods of data summarization
11:00 AM - Study Designs
11:30 AM - Principles of Statistical tests
12:30 PM - Sample Size Determination
1:00- 2:00PM - Lunch
2:00-3:00 PM - Hands on Exercise (Computation of statistics)
